DARMA VALLEY · WINTER 2026

Panchachuli Base Camp Expedition

Six days from Delhi to the foot of Panchachuli in the snow, by 4x4 from Dharchula. Three nights in the Darma valley, the walk to the base camp, the last villages before the border, a hot spring, and a flight over the hills on the way home.

6 days, 5 nights
Friday night to Thursday

6,904 m
Panchachuli's highest peak

Every Friday
27 Nov to 25 Dec, from Delhi

₹55,000
a person, all of it included

WHY DARMA, WHY WINTER

Some trips you take. This one you will tell people about for the rest of your life.

People find Darma through one picture: five snow peaks over a village of stone houses. Then they find out it is real, in India, and that a 4x4 can take you almost to their foot. In winter it is quieter and whiter than any picture of it.

AS THE FILMS SAY

“Dilon mein tum apni betaabiyaan le ke chal rahe ho, toh zinda ho tum.”

If you still carry that restlessness in your heart, you are alive.

Zindagi Na Milegi Dobara (2011)

5 peaks above 6,000 m	3 nights with no signal	1 road in, to the border	0 crowds in December

WHAT PEOPLE COME FOR

Panchachuli, face to face
Five peaks over 6,000 m at the head of the valley. Darma is the one side you can walk to without climbing.

The walk to the base camp
A day on foot from the last village to the foot of the glaciers, with a guide from the valley.

The Rung villages
Stone and carved-wood houses of a people who traded with Tibet for centuries.

The 4x4 road
A gorge road cut into the cliff, and a valley that ends at the border country.

Pictures nobody else has
A valley most of India has not seen yet. Every frame of it is yours.

WHAT WINTER ADDS

Snow on the path
The base camp walk in snow, the glaciers white to the valley floor.

The clearest air of the year
Peaks sharp all day; at night, more stars than you have ever seen.

Nobody else, no signal
No crowds and no network: six days with the people beside you.

Frozen waterfalls, a hot spring
Ice on the gorge's waterfalls, then warm water at Dar to finish.

Long evenings by the fire
Early dark, a warm fire, hot food and the group's stories.

THE WEEK

Six days, five nights. Three of them in the valley. One walk you will talk about for years.

01 FRIDAY NIGHT AND SATURDAY
Into the hills
Delhi • Pithoragarh
THE RUN IN

02 SUNDAY
Into Darma
Pithoragarh • Dharchula • Tawaghat • Dantu
THE GORGE, BY 4X4

03 MONDAY
Panchachuli Base Camp
Dugtu • the forest • Base Camp • Zero Point
THE BIG DAY

04 TUESDAY
The last villages
Dantu • Tidang • Sipu • Dantu
DEEP DARMA, BY 4X4

05 WEDNESDAY
Hot spring, high ridge
Dantu • Dar • Tawaghat • Narayan Ashram • Dharchula
DOWN THE GORGE, BY 4X4

06 THURSDAY
Fly, then home
Dharchula • Pithoragarh • by air, if you like • Delhi
THE FINALE

AS THE FILMS SAY

"Main udna chahta hoon, daudna chahta hoon... bas rukna nahi chahta."

I want to fly, I want to run... I just don't want to stop.

Bunny, Yeh Jawaani Hai Deewani (2013)

Leaves	Fridays, 10 pm, Delhi
Back	Thursday night, Delhi
Ride	Tempo Traveller to Dharchula, then 4x4s
Nights	Pithoragarh 1 • Darma 360, 3 • Dharchula 1
Highest point	Base Camp, 3,400 m and up
Walking	One big day, about 6 hrs, in snow

THE ROUTE

Up the Kali, into the gorge, to the foot of the five peaks.

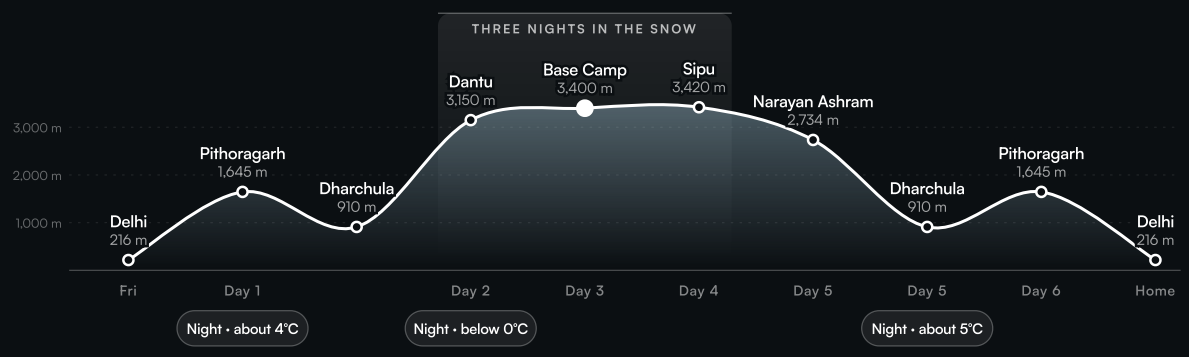

Tempo Traveller — 4x4 convoy — 4x4 side trips ····· On foot

Real terrain and roads, seen from the south

about 640 km	2 river gorges	3,400 m+	below 0°C
Delhi to Dantu, one way	the Kali, then the Darma	the base camp, on foot	the valley's winter nights

THE WEEK IN HEIGHT, AND THE COLD WHERE YOU SLEEP (APPROXIMATE)

HOW YOU TRAVEL

A 4x4 expedition into Darma.

The plains go by in a Tempo Traveller. At Dharchula, where the road turns to dirt and climbs into the gorge, the 4x4 convoy takes over.

The 4x4 convoy under the snow

01 DELHI TO DHARCHULA

Tempo Traveller

Pushback seats, room for your bags, and the overnight run while you sleep. It brings you home the same way on Thursday.

02 DHARCHULA INTO DARMA

The 4x4 convoy

Local 4x4s with hill-licensed drivers who drive this gorge all year. Four days in the valley, every road and every side trip.

In convoy, from above

Stop for the view

A lead and a sweep
The trip leader rides in front; the last 4x4 makes sure nobody is left behind.

Daylight only
Into the valley before 2 pm, never on the mountain roads after dark.

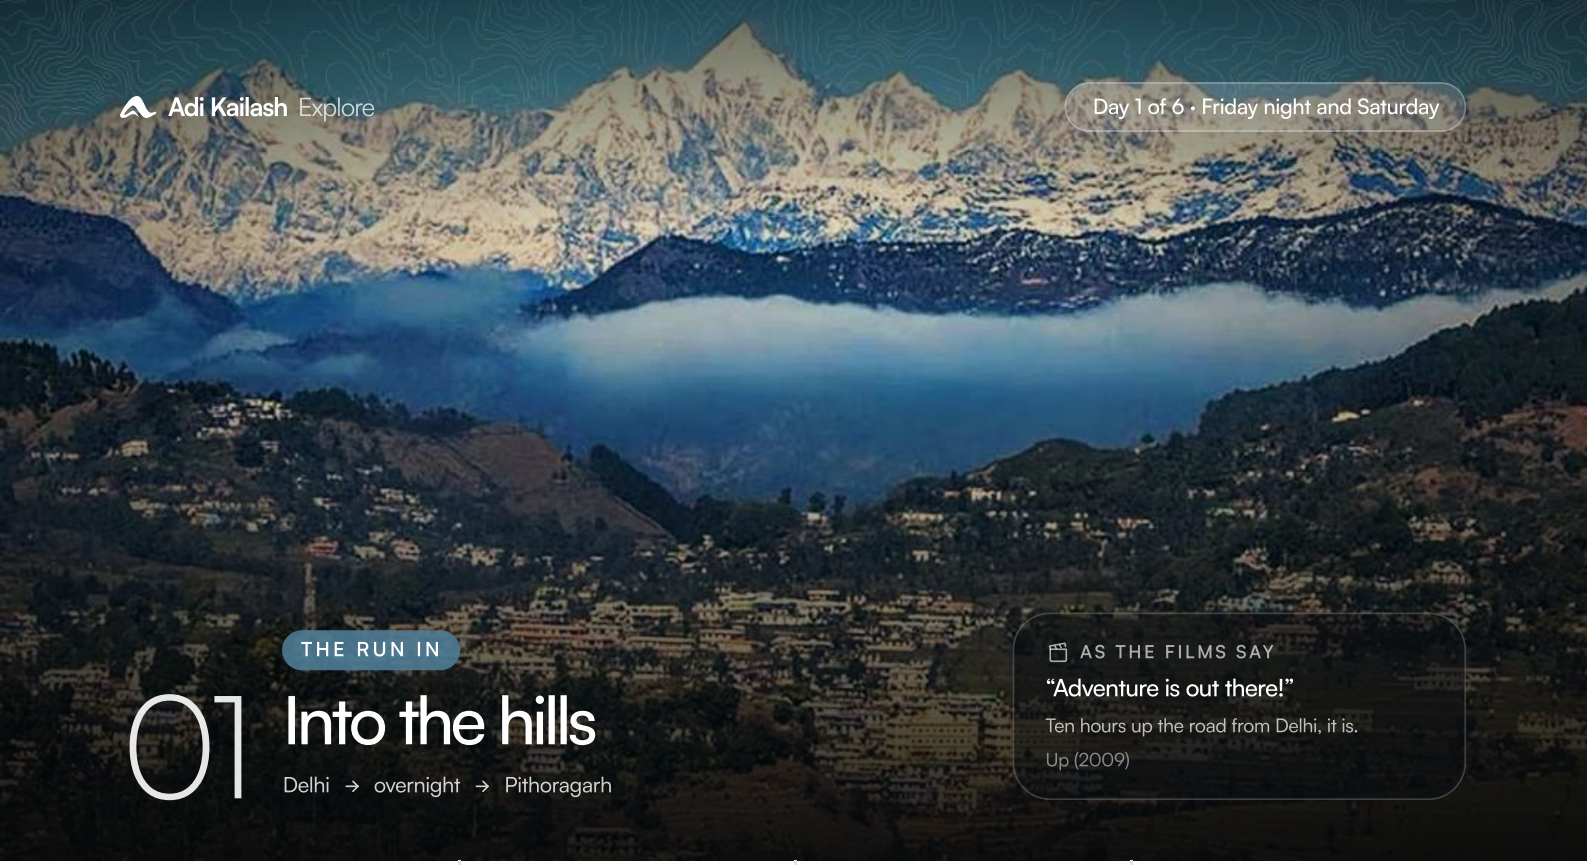

Built for the snow
High clearance, four-wheel drive, chains in the boot, drivers who know where the ice is.

AS THE FILMS SAY

"Roads? Where we're going, we don't need roads."

Past Dharchula, the 4x4s barely do.

Doc Brown, Back to the Future (1985)

THE RUN IN

01 Into the hills

Delhi → overnight → Pithoragarh

AS THE FILMS SAY

"Adventure is out there!"

Ten hours up the road from Delhi, it is.

Up (2009)

HEIGHT	DEC NIGHT	RIDE	WEAR
about 1,645 m	about 4°C	Tempo Traveller	a warm layer

You leave Delhi after work and wake up in the Kumaon hills. By lunch you are in Pithoragarh, the town the locals call little Kashmir, and by sunset you have seen the snow range you are driving into.

Fri, 10 pm — Delhi
Meet the group and your trip leader. The Tempo Traveller rolls; the plains go by while you sleep.

Dawn — Into the hills
The climb starts at first light, never in the dark. Chai at a roadside dhaba.

Noon — Pithoragarh
Check in, a hot lunch, a slow afternoon after the night on the road.

Afternoon — London Fort
A Gorkha fort of about 1790 above the town, with its First World War plaque.

Sunset — Chandak hill
The whole snow range on the horizon, and the valley below turning gold.

THE MOMENT

The first sight of the snow range from Chandak, with a week of it ahead of you.

TONIGHT
A hotel in Pithoragarh

MEALS
Lunch, and the first dinner together

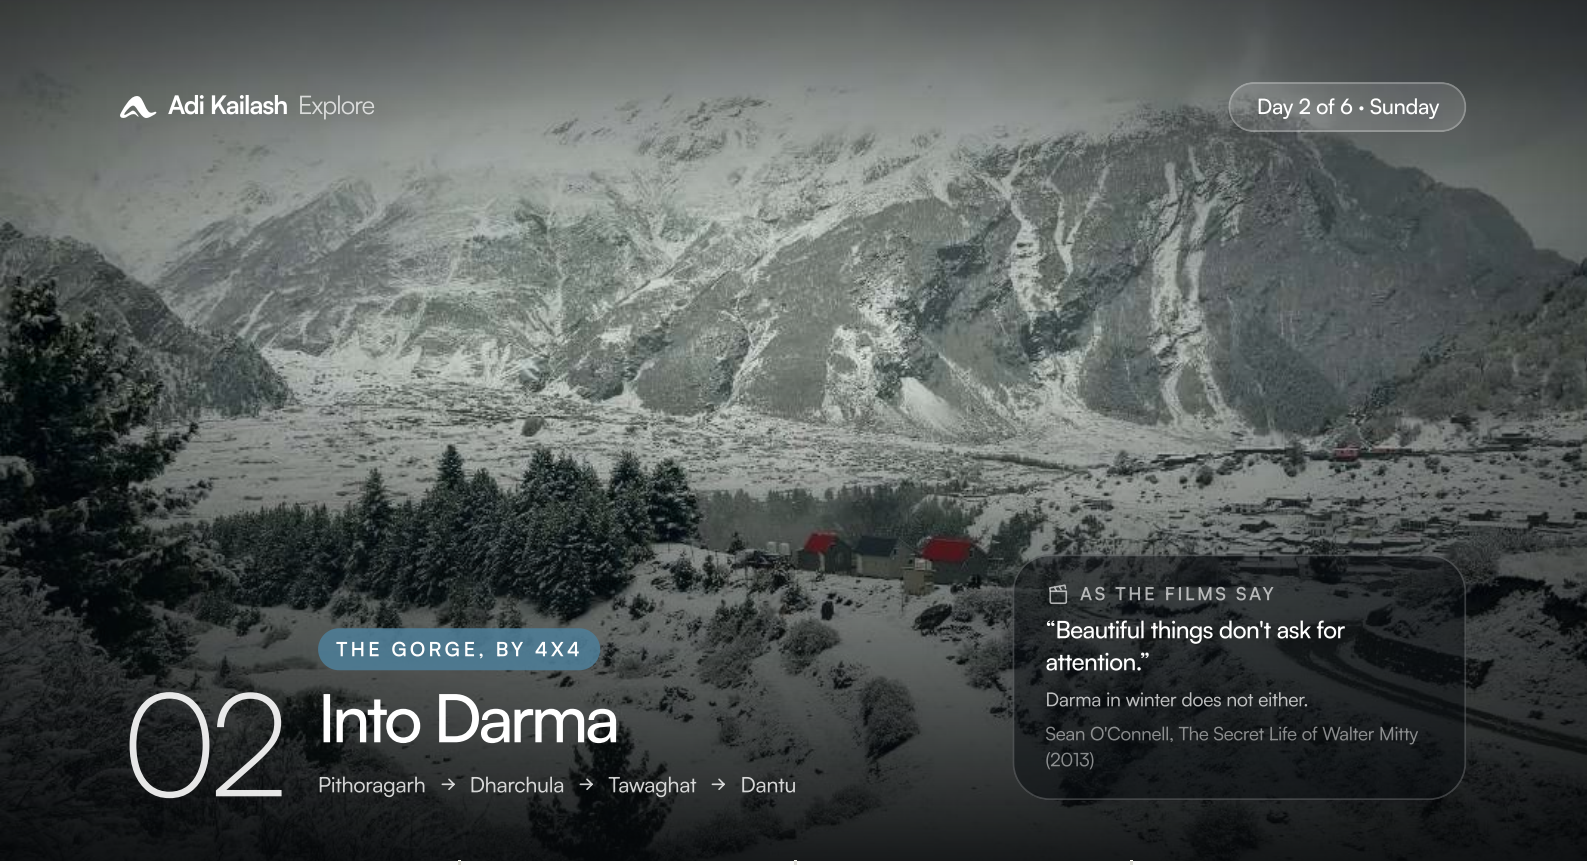

THE PHOTO
Chandak at sunset: the range in one frame

Dawn over Pithoragarh

The road in, at sunset

THE GORGE, BY 4X4

02 Into Darma

Pithoragarh → Dharchula → Tawaghat → Dantu

AS THE FILMS SAY

"Beautiful things don't ask for attention."

Darma in winter does not either.

Sean O'Connell, The Secret Life of Walter Mitty (2013)

HEIGHT	NETWORK	RIDE	WEAR
about 3,150 m	none from here	4x4 from Dharchula	down jacket on

Down to the Kali with Nepal on the far bank. At Dharchula the 4x4 convoy takes over and climbs the Dhauliganga gorge. The road turns to dirt, the waterfalls freeze at their edges, and Panchachuli fills the head of the valley.

6:00	Pithoragarh An early start: nobody drives into the valley after 4 pm.
9:30	Dharchula: into the 4x4s The Kali, the bridge to Nepal, and the convoy of local 4x4s with hill drivers.
Late morning	The Dhauliganga gorge From Tawaghat past Sobla and its waterfalls, on a road cut into the cliff.
2:00 pm	Darma 360 Your home for three nights, under the five peaks. Tea, and a first walk round the village.
Evening	The first evening A hot dinner, the fire lit, and the peaks turning pink at sunset.

THE MOMENT

Rounding the last bend and finding the five peaks of Panchachuli standing over the village.

TONIGHT
Darma 360, our premium stay in the valley

MEALS
Breakfast, lunch and dinner

THE PHOTO
The last bend before Dantu: peaks over the roofs

The snow road into the valley

4x4s in falling snow

THE BIG DAY

03 Panchachuli Base Camp

Dugtu → the forest → Base Camp → Zero Point

AS THE FILMS SAY

"To see the world, things dangerous to come to... that is the purpose of life."

Six days of it, in one valley.

The Secret Life of Walter Mitty (2013)

WALK	BASE CAMP	START	WEAR
about 3 hrs each way	3,400 m and up	6 am	boots, microspikes

The only side of Panchachuli you can walk to without climbing. In winter the path is snow, the forest is silent, and at the end of it the glaciers come down the mountain in front of you.

6:00 — Away in the dark
Hot tea, head torches, and a guide from the valley who knows the path in snow.

Sunrise — First light
The tops of the five peaks turn gold while the valley is still blue.

Mid morning — Base Camp
About three hours on foot from Dugtu, at the foot of the glaciers. Packed lunch with the view.

For the strong — Zero Point
A little further towards the ice, if the snow and your legs allow. Back by afternoon.

✧ Snow sets the pace. If the path is deep, the guide turns at the safest point, and the view is still the whole wall.

THE MOMENT

Standing at the foot of five peaks, with nothing between you and the ice.

TONIGHT
Darma 360

MEALS
Breakfast, a packed lunch and dinner

THE PHOTO
Base Camp, looking up the glacier

Snow all the way to the peaks

Snow all the way to the glaciers

The glaciers of Panchachuli

DEEP DARMA, BY 4X4

04 The last villages

Dantu → Tidang → Sipu → Dantu

AS THE FILMS SAY

"Not all those who wander are lost."

Sipu is where the road ends, not the wandering.

The Lord of the Rings: The Fellowship of the Ring (2001)

SIPU	ALSO	RIDE	WEAR
about 3,420 m	the spare day	4x4, then on foot	all your layers

The convoy goes up the valley past where most travellers turn back: to Tidang, where the Darma meets the Lassar Yankti, and Sipu, the last village before the border country.

Morning — Up the valley
Past Go and Philam by 4x4, as far as the road and the snow allow.

Late morning — Tidang
Where two rivers meet under the high ridges.

Midday — Sipu
Stone houses, a Shiva temple, and the end of the inhabited world on this side.

Evening — The last night
Back to Darma 360, a fire in the courtyard, songs, and stories of the valley.

✧ This is also the trip's spare day. If snow closed the path on Monday, the base camp walk moves here.

THE MOMENT

Standing in Sipu, where the valley runs on towards Tibet and the road does not.

TONIGHT
Darma 360

MEALS
Breakfast, lunch on the way and dinner

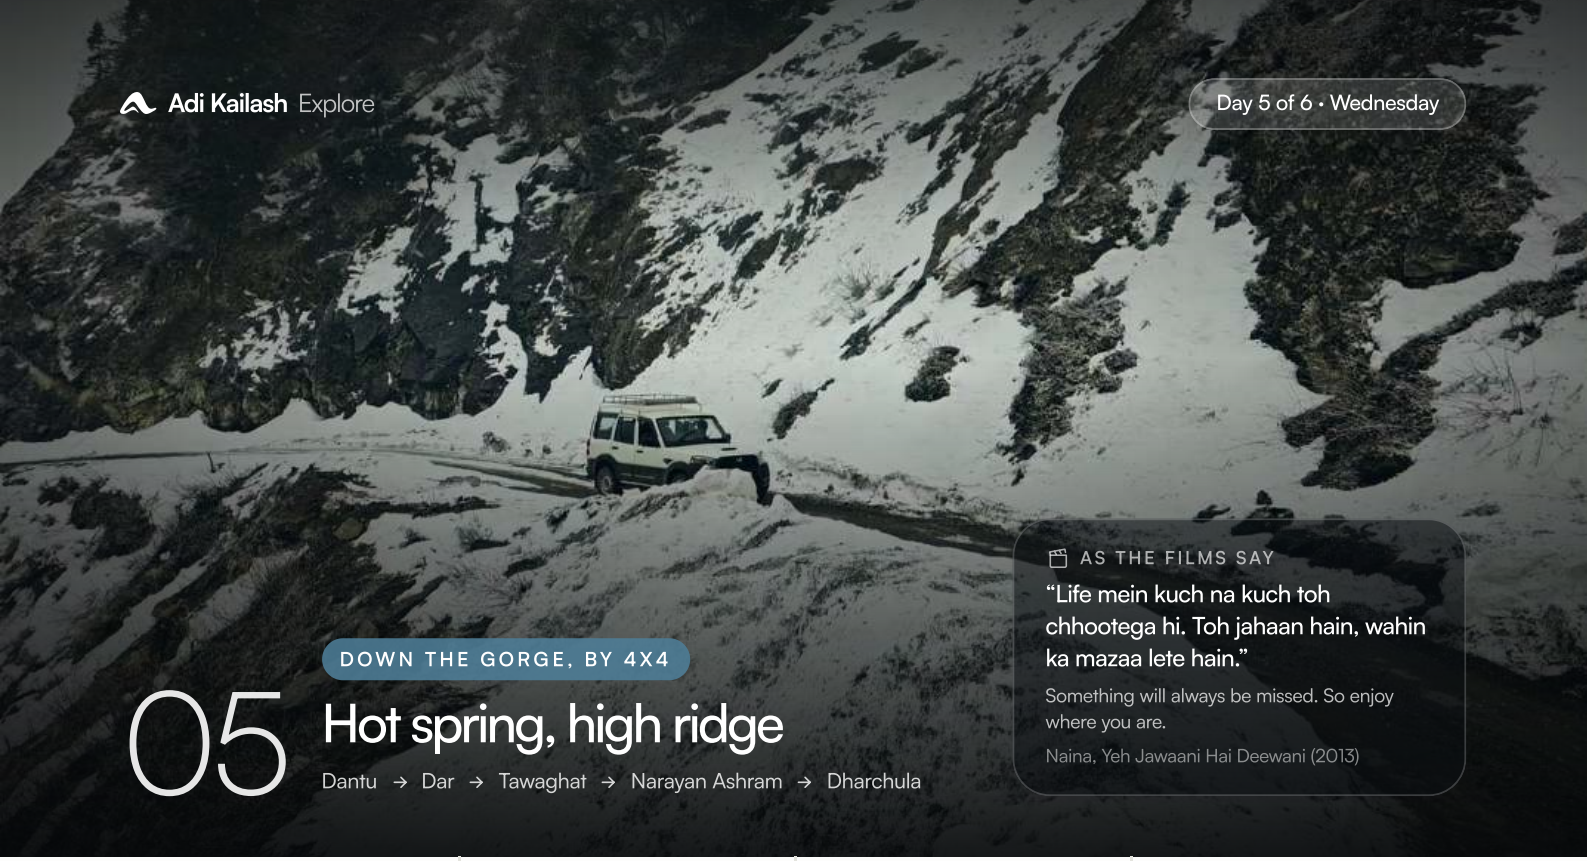

THE PHOTO
Sipu's temple, with the valley behind

Deep snow on the road to Tidang

The upper valley under snow

DOWN THE GORGE, BY 4X4

05 Hot spring, high ridge

Dantu → Dar → Tawaghat → Narayan Ashram → Dharchula

AS THE FILMS SAY

"Life mein kuch na kuch toh chhootega hi. Toh jahaan hain, wahin ka mazaa lete hain."

Something will always be missed. So enjoy where you are.

Naina, Yeh Jawaani Hai Deewani (2013)

RIDGE	DHARCHULA	RIDE	BRING
about 2,734 m	about 910 m	4x4, gorge and forest	a towel, a change

The 4x4s run back down the gorge past the frozen waterfalls. At Dar you soak in a natural hot spring with snow on the rocks, then take the forest road up to Narayan Ashram's ridge for the last big view.

8:00	Down the gorge The cliff road again by 4x4, the river loud below you in the morning light.
Late morning	Dar hot spring A natural hot spring in the village of Dar, inside Darma: warm water, cold air, steam on the rocks.
Afternoon	Up to the ridge From Tawaghat by forest road to Narayan Ashram, about 2,734 m, the snow peaks across the valley.
Evening	Dharchula Down to the Kali, Nepal's lights across the water, a hot dinner and a proper bed.

✧ We confirm the spring and the ridge road each week before we leave. In a heavy snow week, the ridge is swapped for the Dharchula riverside.

THE MOMENT

Warm water after three days of snow, with the gorge you drove roaring below you.

TONIGHT
A hotel in Dharchula

MEALS
Breakfast, lunch and dinner

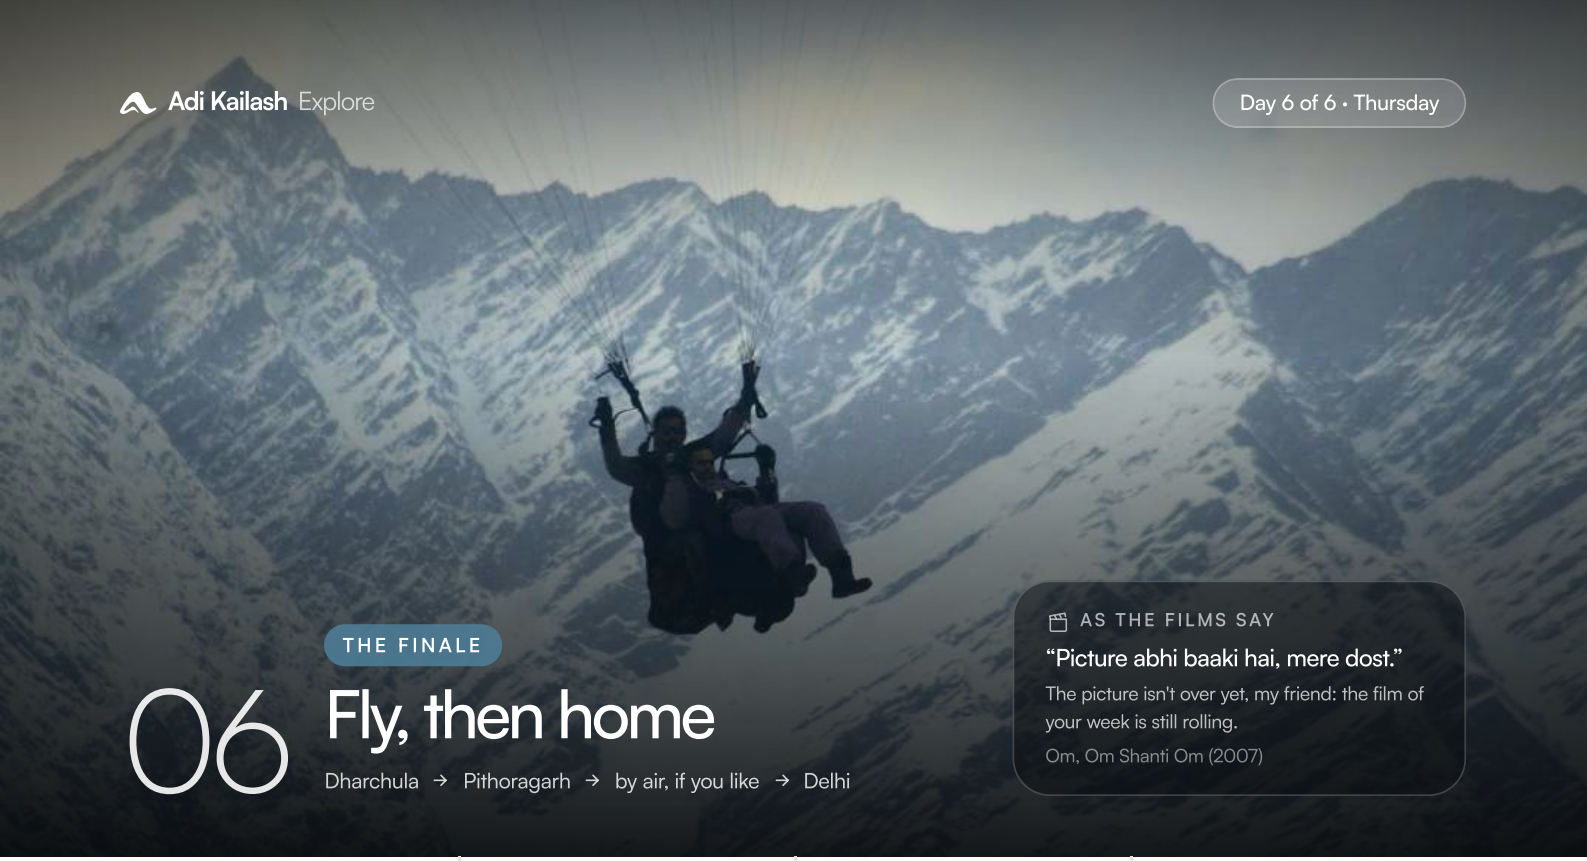

THE PHOTO
Steam on the rocks at Dar

Snow on the forest road

Dantu from above, after snowfall

THE FINALE

06 Fly, then home

Dharchula → Pithoragarh → by air, if you like → Delhi

AS THE FILMS SAY

"Picture abhi baaki hai, mere dost."

The picture isn't over yet, my friend: the film of your week is still rolling.

Om, Om Shanti Om (2007)

FLIGHT	HOME	RIDE	WEAR
optional, paid there	Delhi, 1 to 2 am	Tempo Traveller	a jacket to fly

Back into the Tempo Traveller for the climb to Pithoragarh, and the choice of leaving the mountains the fast way: a tandem paraglide over the valley, landing on the road home, where we pick you up.

6:00	Dharchula Up the Kali valley to Pithoragarh.
Late morning	Paragliding, if you like A tandem flight with a licensed pilot. You land down the valley, on our road home.
Meanwhile	For everyone else The Tempo Traveller drives down to the landing, and you watch them come in.
Afternoon	Home Down to the plains in daylight, and Delhi around 1 to 2 am, with a week of snow on your phone.

✧ Paragliding flies only if the wind allows. If it cannot fly, you pay nothing for it.

THE MOMENT

The valley falling away under your feet, and the snow range behind you.

TONIGHT
Home

MEALS
Breakfast and lunch

THE PHOTO
The landing field: the group cheering you down

Panchachuli, close

THE CULTURE OF DARMA

You don't stay in Darma. You stay with Darma.

A Rung home's carved door

A Rung house under snow

Houses of Dantu in snow

Who they are

The Rung, also called the Rang or Shauka, a Himalayan people of the border valleys of Pithoragarh: Vyas, Darma and Chaudans, with Johar beside them.

The trade

For centuries their families crossed the high passes to Tibet with grain and cloth, and came back with salt, wool and borax. The border closed in 1962; the stories did not.

The language

Darma has its own tongue, Darmiya, spoken by a few thousand people and never written down. The community is building its first dictionary now.

The craft

Wool is everything: hand-woven carpets called dan, shawls, and the chuba, a long woollen robe still worn for festivals.

The faith

Mountains, rivers and forests are sacred here. The great festival is Kandali, held once in twelve years in Chaudans, when the kandali plant flowers.

Jasuli Datal

A widow of Dantu who, the story goes, gave her fortune to build rest houses for travellers across Kumaon and into Nepal. Her village is on your road.

YOUR STAY IN DARMA

Three nights at Darma 360, the valley's premium stay, under the five peaks.

Stone houses of Dantu, after snowfall

Evenings by the fire, under the peaks

A room at Darma 360

The fireplace

Evenings gather round the fire: hot tea, the day's photographs, stories and songs.

The balcony

Panchachuli straight ahead. First light turns the five peaks gold while you hold your tea.

Your room

Warm wooden rooms, thick quilts, and an attached bathroom with hot water.

The food

Hot, fresh mountain food every morning and night, cooked in the valley.

AS THE FILMS SAY

"Happiness only real when shared."

Every evening of the week is round one fire.

Into the Wild (2007)

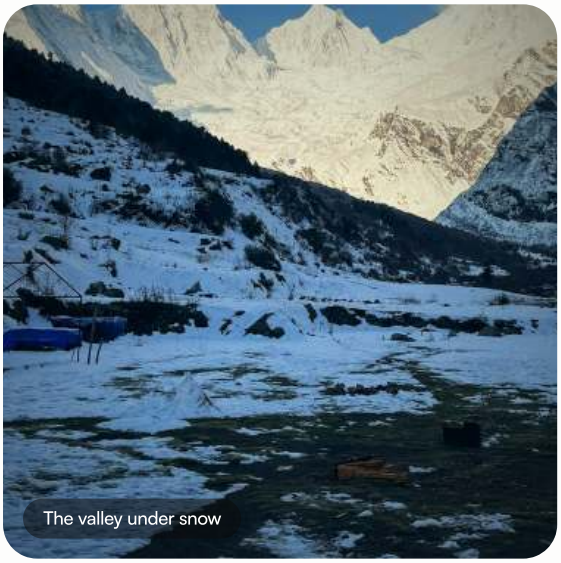

DARMA IN WINTER

Cold, bright and silent. The way the valley is meant to be seen.

The valley under fresh snow

Towards Zero Point, in December

The valley under snow

A path through Dantu, after snowfall

PITHORAGARH	DHARCHULA	DARMA	DAYS
about 3 to 5°C	about 3 to 6°C	below 0°C	bright and dry
Night, December	Night, December	Most nights	Sun on the snow

The snow
Snow lies on the base camp path through the winter. Microspikes and gaiters make it a walk, not a struggle.

The warmth
Your stay has a fireplace, thick quilts and hot water. Dress in layers and you will be comfortable.

The roads
The 4x4s drive the valley only in daylight and out of it before 4 pm. A spare day absorbs a closed road.

The nights
No light for miles. Wrap up and look up: the Milky Way stands over the five peaks.

EVENINGS AND MEMORIES

The days are for the mountains. The nights are for the people beside you.

The Milky Way over Panchachuli

Evenings around the fire

Round the fire

Every evening ends at the fireplace or a fire in the courtyard, with hot tea and stories.

Songs

Someone always has a guitar; the valley has its own songs. By night three, everyone is singing.

Games

Antakshari, cards and the games the village children teach you. No network, so nobody is on a phone.

The sky

On a clear night we walk out of the village, switch off the torches and look up.

EVERY TRIP IS FILMED

You come home with a film of your week.

The convoy in the gorge, the first sight of the peaks, the snow at the base camp, the fire at night: the moments of every departure are filmed and cut into a short film for your group, with the best photographs.

AS THE FILMS SAY

"We used to look up at the sky and wonder at our place in the stars."

In Darma you still do.

Cooper, Interstellar (2014)

WHY EVERY FRIDAY

Leave Friday night. Wake up in the hills. Back on Thursday with a week of snow behind you.

You sleep through the plains

The Tempo Traveller leaves at 10 pm. By the time you wake up, the hills have started.

A week for four days of leave

Friday night to Thursday night: one weekend and four working days for a full week in the Himalaya.

A fixed day, every week

Pick your Friday and plan your leave around it. Come alone, as a couple or as a group of friends.

WHAT MAKES OURS DIFFERENT

Every Friday is the full expedition, not a cut-down weekly version.

- 4x4s inside the valley, never a bus
- Three nights at Darma 360, a premium stay
- The base camp walk with a guide from the valley
- A hot spring and an optional flight to finish
- One price, Delhi to Delhi, nothing added on the way
- A team from Pithoragarh, not an agent in a city

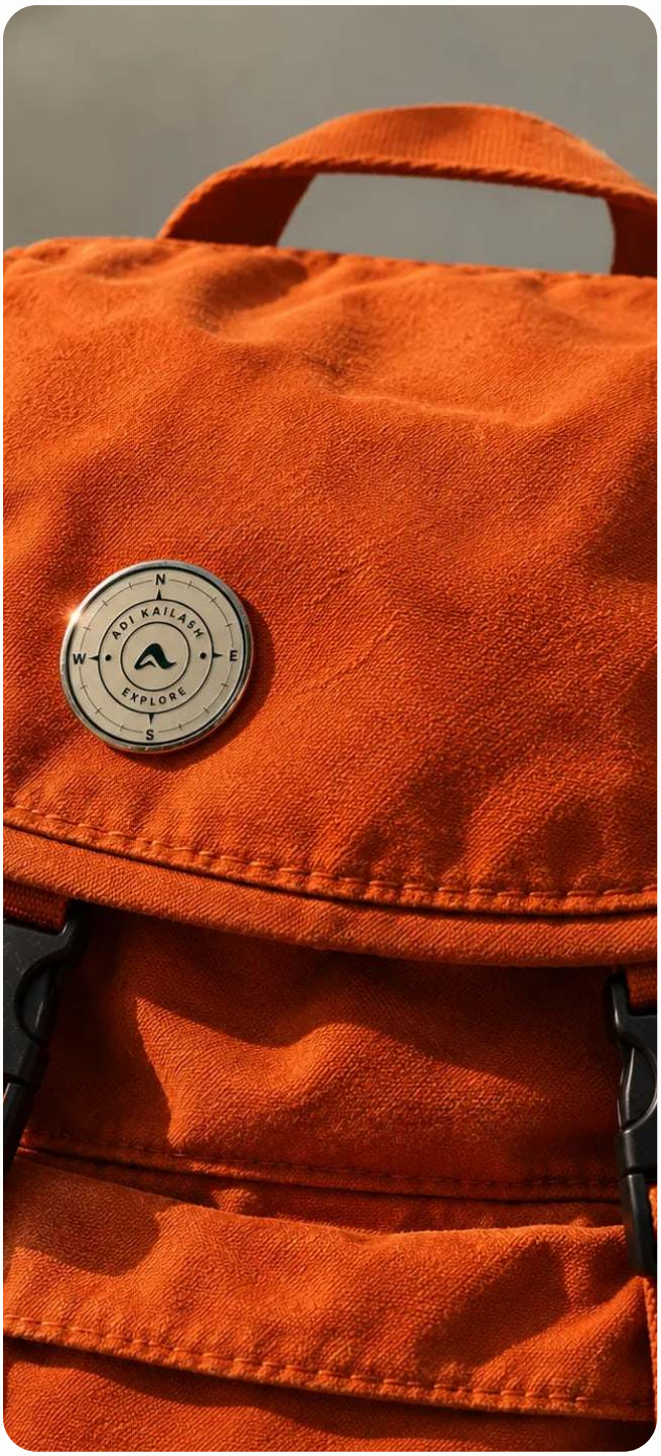

THE LAST FRIDAY OF THE MONTH

Travels with a creator from our community.

Creators like Stuti Rawat, Neerja Rao and Yash Parshwal, who led Expedition 01, join the last departure of each month: 27 November and 25 December. Pick one of those if you would like to travel with them.

WHAT YOU TAKE HOME

Two things to remember it by.

The compass pin

Our compass pin, for your bag or your jacket. Given to you on the first evening in the valley.

Your base camp card

Your name, the date and Panchachuli Base Camp, on a card to keep. Handed over on the last night.

And the pictures. The photographs and the short film of your departure, shared with your group after the trip.

INCLUSIONS

What's included.

12 things in one price, Delhi to Delhi

- Tempo Traveller, Delhi to Dharchula
  And back, overnight on the way up
- The 4x4 convoy in Darma
  Hill-licensed drivers, four days in the valley
- 5 nights' stay
  Pithoragarh 1 • Darma 360, 3 • Dharchula 1
- All meals, every day
  Breakfast, lunch and dinner, Saturday to Thursday
- A packed lunch on the walk
  Hot tea and lunch at the base camp
- A trip leader all week
  From the Friday pickup to the Thursday drop
- A guide from the valley
  For the base camp walk in snow
- Tidang and Sipu by 4x4
  The last villages, and the spare day
- Dar hot spring, Narayan Ashram
  And every sight on the plan
- Darma registration
  Filed for you before you arrive
- Photographs and a short film
  Of your departure, shared after the trip
- The compass pin and base camp card
  Yours to keep

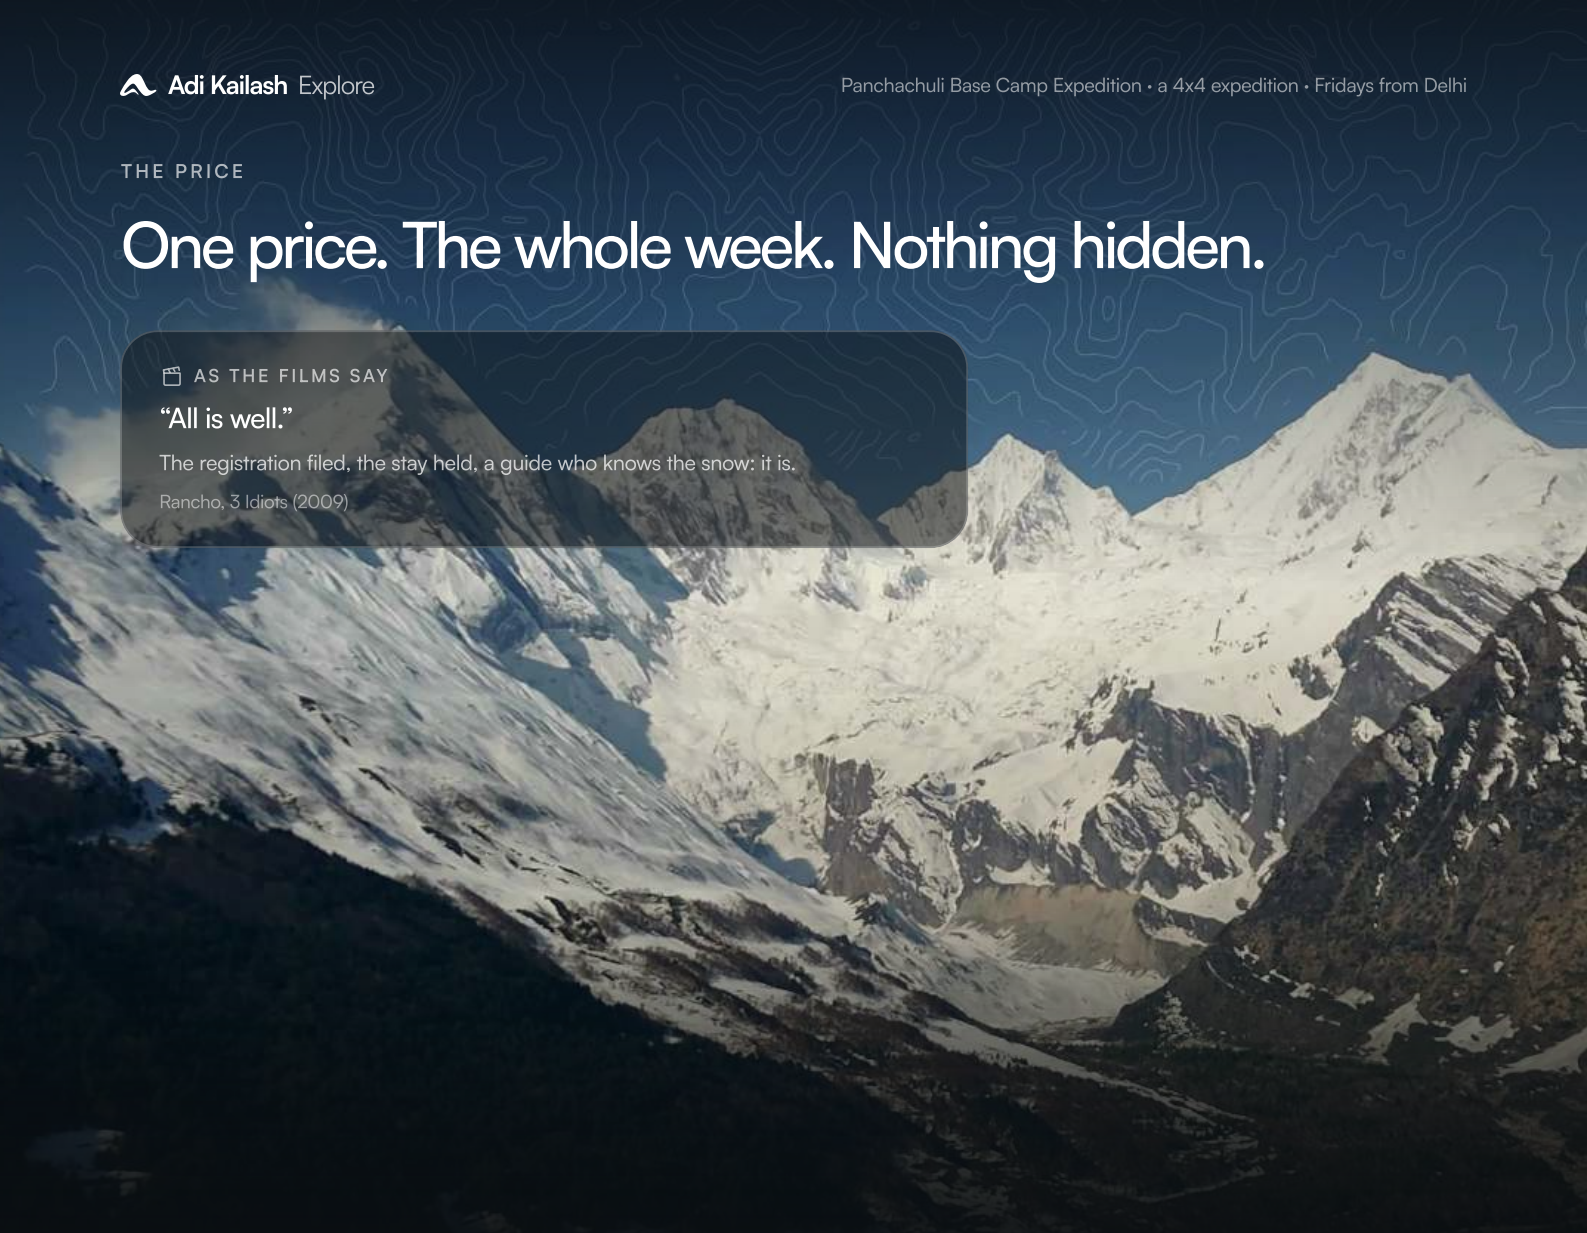

Dressed for the snow

NOT INCLUDED

- Paragliding
  Optional, paid to the pilot on the day
- Snow boots and microspikes
  We tell you where to rent them in Dharchula
- Personal spends
  Snacks, tips, phone and laundry
- Anything not listed here
  Ask us; we will tell you straight
- Taxes
  As applicable

THE PRICE

One price. The whole week. Nothing hidden.

AS THE FILMS SAY

"All is well."

The registration filed, the stay held, a guide who knows the snow: it is.

Rancho, 3 Idiots (2009)

A PERSON, TWIN SHARING

₹55,000

About ₹9,200 a day, Delhi to Delhi

- Tempo Traveller, the 4x4 convoy, 5 nights' stay
- Breakfast, lunch and dinner every day
- Trip leader and a guide from the valley
- Photographs, a short film, the pin and card

₹5,000 holds your seat

The rest before the trip. Scan to ask for your Friday on WhatsApp.

DEPARTURES FROM DELHI

27	Nov 2026 • Friday	With a creator
4	Dec 2026 • Friday	Back Thursday night
11	Dec 2026 • Friday	Back Thursday night
18	Dec 2026 • Friday	Back Thursday night
25	Dec 2026 • Friday	Christmas • with a creator

Delhi at 10 pm each Friday, back on the Thursday night. Seats are held in the order the advances come in.

WHAT TO PACK

Your winter checklist. Tick it off the night before.

Wear it in layers 5

- [ ] Thermal inners, top and bottom
  2 sets: wear one, keep one dry
- [ ] Fleece or a warm sweater
  1 to 2
- [ ] Down jacket with a hood
  The most important thing you pack
- [ ] Windproof outer jacket
  Over everything at base camp
- [ ] Warm trek pants
  2 pairs: jeans are too cold

Head, hands and feet 5

- [ ] Waterproof trekking boots
  Broken in, with good grip
- [ ] Woollen socks
  5 to 6 pairs
- [ ] Gloves
  2 pairs: woollen and waterproof
- [ ] Woollen cap and a neck warmer
  Covers your ears
- [ ] Microspikes and gaiters
  Rent in Dharchula; we arrange it

Papers and health 3

- [ ] Original Aadhaar or passport
  For the Darma registration
- [ ] Your own medicines
  The full course, 3 days extra
- [ ] Cash
  No ATMs above Dharchula, no signal for UPI

For the base camp day 4

- [ ] A daypack, 20 to 30 litres
  Water, lunch and a spare layer
- [ ] Head torch
  For the 6 am start
- [ ] Insulated bottle
  Hot water stays hot
- [ ] Dry fruits and chocolate
  The cold makes you hungry

Small things that help 3

- [ ] Power bank, charged
  Sockets are few up high
- [ ] A towel and a change
  For the hot spring
- [ ] Hand warmers
  Cheap, and loved at base camp

Sun on the snow 2

- [ ] Sunglasses, UV400
  Snow glare hurts
- [ ] Sunscreen SPF 50, lip balm
  The air is very dry

× LEAVE AT HOME A second big bag • jewellery and valuables • cotton for the cold • single-use plastic

BEFORE YOU GO

Everything you need to know, on one page.

How fit you need to be

One big day: about 3 hours up to the base camp and back, partly in snow. If you can walk 10 km on a weekend, you are ready.

Your health

Darma sits around 3,000 m. Tell us about any condition when you book, sleep on the way up, drink plenty of water and go slowly on the first day.

No network

There is no phone signal above Dharchula. Tell your family; the trip leader keeps everyone's emergency contacts.

Papers

An original photo ID for every traveller, Aadhaar or a passport. We file the Darma registration.

If the mountain says no

Snow or a closed road can change a day. We say so before we move, and the spare day in Darma is there for it.

Leave the valley as you found it

No plastic left behind, no loud music in the villages, and ask before every portrait.

Who it suits

Anyone fit for one long walk in the snow. On the other days the 4x4s do the work, so it suits friends, couples and families alike.

Money up there

There are no ATMs above Dharchula and no signal for UPI. Carry cash for snacks, small buys and the paragliding.

AS THE FILMS SAY

“I'm going on an adventure!”

Say it out loud. Then message us.

Bilbo Baggins, The Hobbit: An Unexpected Journey (2012)

A WORD FROM OUR FOUNDER

We live at the foot of these mountains.

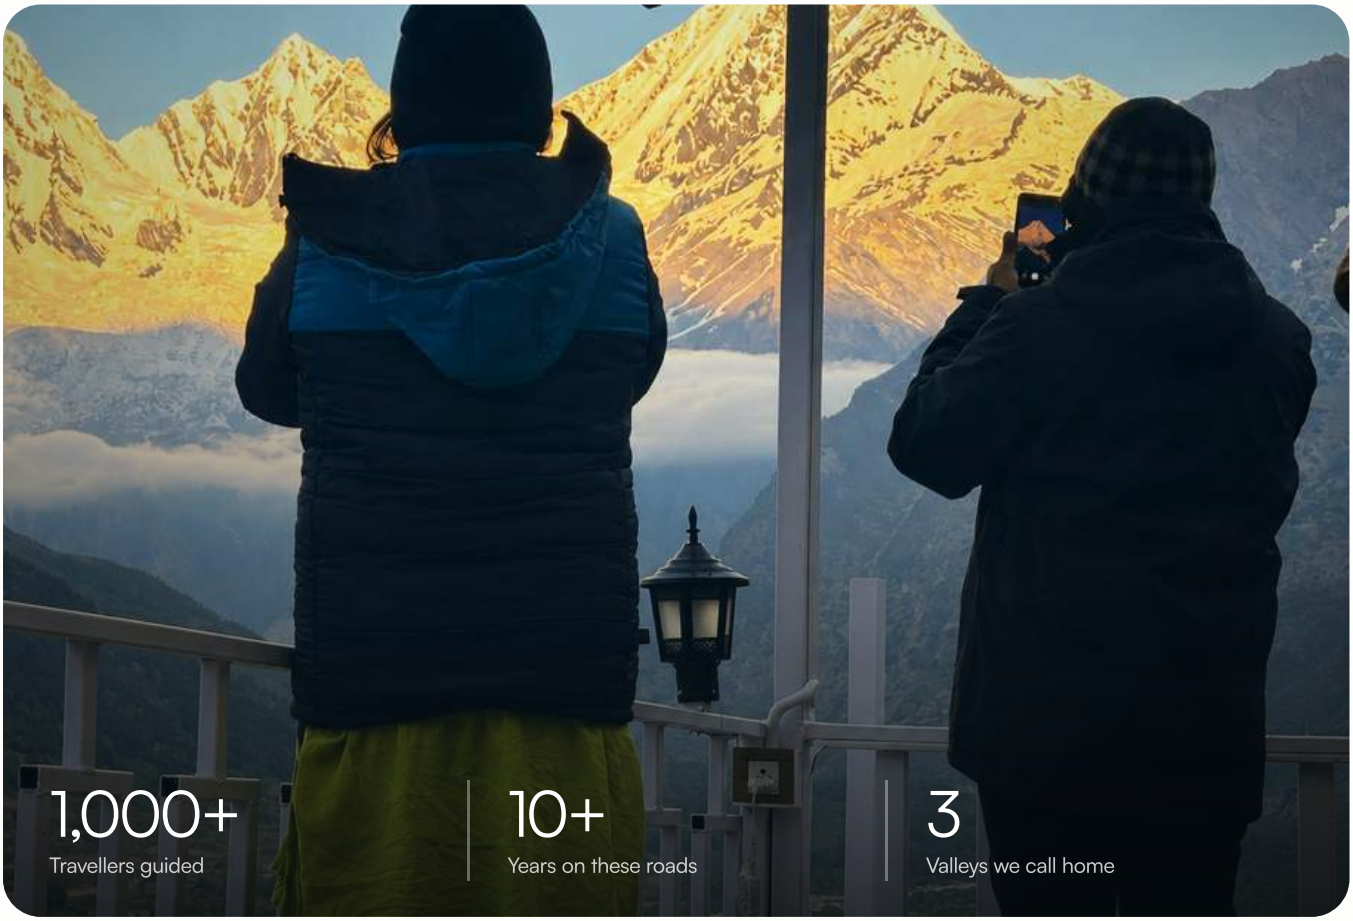

Our team is from Pithoragarh. Darma is not a destination to us; it is the next valley over. Every Friday this winter we are taking a small group into it, the way we would take our own family.

The mountain sets the terms, weather, altitude and the road, and we do not sell past them. And it is everyone's mountain: the religious, the spiritual, the adventurous, from anywhere. You are welcome, and you will be looked after the same.

A driver who has taken the gorge in every condition it offers. A room that matches its photograph. A price that is the price. On this road, certainty is the luxury; everything else is scenery.

Let us show them to you properly.

Vinay Verma, Founder, Adi Kailash Explore

IN THEIR WORDS

More than 1,000 travellers have come into these valleys with us.

"At first, we didn't trust it at all. Now, we trust them completely.

A guest, on video • Adi Kailash, 2026

"Fully 10 on 10. Recommended." Another guest, on video

"I've done package tours to Ladakh and Jaisalmer. But the way these people looked after us..."

A guest, on video
Adi Kailash, 2026

"Everything was perfect. Food, lodging, stays, travel. Not one problem, anywhere."

A guest, on video
Adi Kailash, 2026

"We have never enjoyed ourselves this much."

A guest, on video
Adi Kailash, 2026

"An absolutely divine experience. The team made everything effortless, from the permit process to accommodation. Our guide knew the significance of every stop."

RK Ramesh Kumar
Adi Kailash & Om Parvat, Delhi

"Travelled with family including elderly parents. The team was extremely caring and accommodating. Worth every rupee spent on this holy journey."

AM Anita Mehta
Adi Kailash & Om Parvat, Mumbai

"Best decision of my life. Adi Kailash Explore handled every detail professionally and at a very reasonable price."

PS Priya Sharma
Adi Kailash & Om Parvat, Lucknow

JOIN A FRIDAY

Every Friday this winter. The snow is falling. Your seat is waiting.

₹55,000 a person • ₹5,000 holds your seat

Scan the code, or message us on WhatsApp at +91 76688 58311. We reply within the hour, answer every question, and hold your Friday.

adikailash.io/darma-valley • hello@adikailash.io • @adikailashexplore

We live at the foot of these mountains.
Vinay Verma, Founder, and the team from Pithoragarh.

Paragliding photograph: Arun Viswam, CC BY-SA 3.0, until our own. Heights are approximate; the plan can change with the weather and the road, and we always say so before you leave.